The interview of [redacted]
California, on [redacted]/77, referred to in the enclosed LHM, interview [redacted] advised that [redacted] [redacted] could

On 12/21/76, the above facts were presented to tion available to indicate a violation of federal law. This opinion was confirmed in writing and the Daly City Chief that [redacted] situation should be handled by the local police as the FBI was found not to have jurisdiction.

Referenced San Francisco letter of 12/22/76, noted

Several organizations have been established in recent years by Korean residents in the US who oppose the policies of President PARK Chung-hee of the Republic of Korea (ROK). The Mentong, also known as Committee for Unification and Democracy in Korea, is one organization that claims the most influence in the US. Their goals, though not clearly defined, are undoubtedly anti-PARK and at times their members appear to be supporters of the North Korean regime. The latter political persuasion has been adopted by some of those members, however, the entire membership agrees in their fervant opposition to PARK.

During the first national convention of the Mentong in the Summer of 1976, at Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

A Courteous Welcoming Night Where Music Played and

-Prof. YOON I-sang Explained His Musical Composition
at the Party-

A welcoming party for Prof. YOON I-sang, who was put in jail on account of his involvement in the East Berlin Incident, was held at 7:30 p.m. on 3/29/77 for three (3) hours at the Galilee United Methodist Church in Washington, D.C., with an attendance of about 110 Korean residents.

LEE Hong-no (ph) presided over the welcoming party and Rev. SHIN Dai-shik, pastor of the church, made an introduction speech for Prof. YOON. CHANG Sung-nam, Chairman of the Council for Civil Liberty in Korea (*), made a welcoming speech.

Prof. YOON, in response to the welcoming speech, said:
"I am not a politician. I am a musician by profession.
Musical composition is my God-given profession.

"If and when democracy is restored in Korea and the mood for the unification of Korea prevails, I will throw off my social activities and return to a musical life.

"When I met with the Korean residents in the Washington area, I felt as if I was in Korea.

"My musical composition is based on Korean classical music and is different from Occidental works."

Prof. YOON explained in plain language his method of musical composition, his opinions on music and the trend of Occidental music.

Prof. YOON played a record of his musical composition, called "Flute," for the audience.

According to Prof. YOON, Occidental music is precisely composed chord. Oriental music has in a sense no composition. The Oriental sound itself is musical.

TRANSLATOR'S NOTE

A picture appears showing Prof. AHN Yong-koo of the Peabody Music Conservatory in a trio playing welcoming chamber music.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He said, however, that embassy officials are not openly antagonistic towards him because he does have infrequent contact with some of them socially. Nevertheless, he has received anonymous telephone calls in which he has been physically threatened because of his supposed anti-PARK attitude.

[REDACTED] was not overly concerned about such threats in which the caller, naturally was never identified. He suspected KCIA involvement either directly or through their local supporters. He rationalized that he and most other Koreans who are either anti-PARK or who are not publicly identified as pro-PARK are susceptible to threats which have now become taken for granted.

He concluded by saying that the ROK Government, specifically PARK Chung-hee, are so corrupt that underhanded tactics and cowardly behavior such as anonymous telephone calls are so frequent and predictable that the intended result is not overly successful.
